PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

Hello Hawk Community!

Mr. Wells was out of the office this week. However, we know he hopes everyone is having a wonderful summer and cannot wait for the 2010-2011 school year to see all of the new successes we will have at Birdville High School!

Parents, please remember that online registration begins on Monday, July 26. To access online registration, you must know your Family Access Login. If you do not have a Family Access Login (SKYWARD), you cannot complete this part of the registration process. After completing the online process, parents must still go the school during your child's registration time to provide the required documentation.

Please see the information below which contains registration dates and times. Registration is August 9-12 for current BISD students, Friday August 13 for those new to the district, and late registration is on Monday, August 16. Also, please notice the bell schedule for the year.

Some teachers and organizations have shared information about events occurring in early August which are included in this newsletter.

GO HAWKS!!!

Take care,

PTSA NEWS

President - Kelly Kellner

Wow! It is almost that time of year again to shop for school clothes and school supplies. We are gearing up for another wonderful year at BHS.

Registration dates are posted and many volunteers will be needed during registration. If you are willing to volunteer any time from Monday, August 9, to Friday, August 13, please let me know by emailing me at kelliekellner@charter.net. Students are welcome to help with registration as well. This will allow them the opportunity to earn community service hours for National Honor Society, Character Counts, and other organizations.

Be sure to take advantage of tax free weekend August 20 - 22! Don't tire yourself too much while shopping though as school starts Monday, August 23.

The good news is you may be able to get a few extra minutes of sleep with the new start times! High school start time is 8:55 a.m. and ends at 4:10 p.m .

Mark your calendar for Meet the Teacher night in conjunction with our fall PTSA meeting on Monday, September 13. Watch for information about this event!

A great place to get information about all of BHS happenings is to register to receive the BHS newsletter. You can sign up during registration, click the link on the home page of our PTSA Web site at www.birdvillehighptsa.org, or send an email requesting to receive the newsletter at bhsptsaenews@gmail.com.  BHS PTSA on Facebook.

Then before we know it, we are holding our PTSA one and only fundraiser...the Fall Craft Fair. This will be held on Saturday and Sunday, September 18 & 19. Many, many volunteers are needed to help with this event. Starting Friday night, we need volunteers to help with set up, all day Saturday and Sunday, volunteers are needed for a variety of things, and then Sunday evening volunteers are needed to help tear down. Again, students are welcome to help to earn community service hours.

Please let me know if you are able to help at all during this time. This is our only fundraising opportunity and we expect it to be a huge success.

Lastly, we have a few board positions still available. If you are interested in serving on BHS PTSA Board, please let me know.

I am looking forward to an amazing year. GO HAWKS!

BHS Choir Singing Hawks

Stop by the Choir Table at Registration!

Calling all Singing Hawks students and parents! The BHS Choir department will have a table at registration this year! Be sure to stop by the table and use our laptop to make sure we have the most up-to-date Parent and Student contact information. Parents can pick-up calendar information or sign-up for volunteer opportunities related to upcoming Choir events. The Student Choir fee can be paid at this time which is $50. Parents/Grandparents can also sign up or send a check with a student to become a 2010-11 Choir Booster Club member during registration as well.

Check www.singinghawks.com, then click on Booster Club on the left side, to read all about booster club benefits. You can even print off a membership form to complete in advance. Please make all checks payable to BHS Choir Booster Club. We look forward to seeing you there!
